

I would like the FCC to not change the laws that the states have in place now. I really enjoy my evenings now that I do not have telemarketers call all evening long. It is my phone and I pay the bill and do not like receiving calls that I do not want. Thank you.